Everyday Faces of 2004

As the summer faded away and we fell into the normal routine of school once again, the overpopulated hallways of Marian High School transformed into a blur of faces before our very eyes. After looking at the same faces day in and day out, we stop taking the time to think about what is behind each face. The theme "Everyday Faces of 2004" was chosen to show the importance of each student, teacher, and administrator to this school and to the larger community.

Seeing the Face of God

In a Catholic High School like Marian, the Catholic faith is very important to the students and to the faculty. With our beloved Chaplain Father Dan to lead us, we gather together to celebrate the mass on Holy Days of obligation and other special occasions. This year our Liturgical Choir is better than ever after putting out their CD, We Believe. They help to lead us all because "singing is praying twice." Father Dan, the Liturgical Choir, and our religion teachers help us to extend our Catholic identity outside of the mass and bring it into our communities, letting everyone see the face of God in all of us.

Three's a Crowd

This year the Marian Drama department, under the direction of Mr. Dobosiewicz, decided to try something a little different. Instead of doing one fall play, they presented three shorter plays including Sorry Wrong Number, The Lottery, and You the Jury. With the play occurring on the weekend of Halloween, these productions, with their eerie auras, provided the perfect choice for a spooky experience.

Face Off

The hockey team surpassed all expectations this year, finishing up the season with an outstanding record of 34-8-3. Seniors Nick Fraser, Aric Ronske, Jeff Cress, and Matt Dibley enjoyed the most successful 4-year span in Marian hockey history, and for the first time ever, the Knights were seeded in the Class 5-A tournament. Also, Nick Fraser won the coveted Dana Fish Award for Mental Attitude and Academics. Junior David Murray set an individual record, scoring the most goals in one season. The hockey Knights will miss the leadership of the graduating seniors., but look forward to yet another winning season.

Lapping the Field

The Girls' Track team enjoyed another successful season, both locally and state wide. In the 4 by 800 relay of Mary Cate Quiett, Kelly Hosaflook, Lindsey Gilman, and Megan Flynn, Marian earned 9th place in the state, breaking their own school record in the process. The 4 by 4 relay team of Mary Cate Quiett, Krystal Killingsworth, Jessica Byron, and Megan Flynn placed 5th at the state competition, and Megan Flynn placed 3rd in the Open 800. Great work, Ladies!

Green Machines

The Boys' Golf team had another outstanding season, exceeding the expectations of their peers and meeting their personal goals by winning the sectional for the fifth time in a row and by sweeping the NIC for their second consecutive NIC Title. Sectional Medalist was freshman Colin VanEs. The team also finished first at two tournaments, the South Bend Invitational and the Florence Troeger Memorial. Nate Hoff and Colin VanEs were designated 1st Team NIC while Barry Siqueira was named 2nd Team NIC. NIC Coach of the Year honors went to Coach Kryder. Congratulations, boys, on another winning season.

A Flock of Birdies

The Lady Golfing Knights spent their season meeting goal after goal and exceeding all expectations. For the second year in a row, the girls competed in the State Tournament at the Legends Golf Course in Franklin, Indiana. During the regular season the girls had many victories, the most memorable being their defeat of the Lady Kingsmen, the defending State Champions, at Christiana Creek in their own Penn Invitational. With their number one and two golfers being only sophomores, the future looks bright for these Lady Knights.

Editor's Letter

It has been a great three years. It has been a real privilege to do this yearbook for all of you, and I hope that you all enjoy it! To my fellow seniors, I'll miss you all, and I hope that this is the best yearbook of our four years. (I think it is!) I want to thank all of the people who helped to make this yearbook a success: my co-editor Shannon Egan, Marg Garascia, Lauren Kreager, and Jayme O'Hara. Without their ideas, there would be no 2004 yearbook. Also, thank you to Deanna Lind, Amanda Maciejewski, and Elizabeth Mathis who came in and indexed. Thanks for helping with the worst part of this job. Thanks to my friends for giving me pictures and weird information for articles. Last but not least, thank you to Ms. Conn for all your help these past years. I don't think that this book would be without you, so thank you. I'm going to end with a quote: "Everything will be ok in the end; if it is not ok, then it is not the end." Well, everything is ok, so this must be the end. I hope that you have all enjoyed this book. I know I do.

Signing off,
Allison Krisch
